The Crawford County Board of supervisors went on record last Wednesday afternoon to withhold any action on the level of Lake Margrethe until their April session.

The action was taken after about 15 lake front property owners appeared before the Board. Robert Neafie acted as spokesman for the group and explained what action the local committee had taken on the problem. He also explained the action taken by the State Conservation Department, the Health Department, the Attorney General's office and the State Military Board in seeking an equitable answer to the lake level question. The Conservation Department's comprehensive eighty page report on the level, the only report thus far completed, recommends that the lake level be dropped exactly one foot from the legal level set by court in 1927. According to the report, the lake level is now 1.33 feet above the legal level.

After the presentation of these reports by local and state groups, a motion was made and seconded, and then passed by the Board to defer any action on the lake level problem until the April term of the Board at which time, full reports should be at hand by all interested parties.

Grayling Fire Department News

Weekly meeting of October 20th was called to order by Chief Middle LaMotte at 7:30 p. m.

At 7:30 p. m. with only four or five firemen present Chief LaMotte decided to get the whole department there a little faster, so he had a false alarm turned in.

As soon as the firemen showed up at the fire hall we went out to the Air Port with the trucks.

And I might add that several other Grayling people went out to the Air Port. We had a very good following.

Once out to the Air Port Mr. Grant Thompson explained both Air Port fire trucks to the Grayling fire department and our department has the use of these Air Port fire trucks whenever we might need them. These trucks are very good trucks and Grayling is indeed very lucky to have the use of these trucks in case of an emergency. We may also get help from Camp Grayling where there are two trucks and a crew of men. After Mr. Thompson had explained his fire trucks to our department, we returned to the fire hall.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Sixteen members were present at this meeting.

The application of LeRoy Matthews was received and accepted. Meeting was adjourned at 9:00 p. m.

No fires this past week.

Kiwanis Club Notes

Father John Breitenstein was the speaker at Monday night's meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling. He was introduced by Wesley LaGrow, who was in charge of the program.

Fr. Breitenstein discussed the growth of juvenile delinquency cases in and near Grayling of late. He traced the influence of the home, school, church and civic authorities of the development of children.

Although not stating where he felt the trouble was as he said that would be a personal opinion, he did point out that probably all four were somewhat to blame.

He cited cases on which he had been called and how some seemingly small thing had really been the basis for the breaking of the law. The younger people should be taught more respect for the law, he stated, and we should elect officials whom the children can respect.

The 1953 canoe classic, a 240-mile nonstop race on the AuSable river will be held Sept. 18-19. Starting this time will again be at midnight, Friday, September 18. The group made no major change in rules and regulations governing the race, but discussed plans to increase the prize money.

The group approved a plan to seek a commercial sponsor for the event. A committee, headed by Robert Bovee, of Oscoda, was appointed to look into the possibilities.

Other members of this committee are: Frank Davis, EMTA, secretary-manager, of Bay City; Les Hunter of Grayling; Mrs. Gladys Condit, of Glennie, and Azer.

The October meeting of Grayling Parent Teacher's Association will be held at the South Side School on Wednesday evening, October 29th, with the school as host.

A very interesting program has been planned for that evening and all parents and teachers are urged to attend.

The meeting will open with community singing. Mrs. Bernard Hall, who, with her family, spent several weeks in Alaska

Vote For No. 3 . . .

It is time now to make clear the difference between the two constitutional amendments to be upon the November 4 ballots, both calling for long overdue reapportionment of the State Legislature.

One appears as "Amendment No. 2" and the other as "Amendment No. 3." They have in common the fact that both would correct certain existing evils such as refusal of the Legislature to take reapportionment action; the subservience of Detroit to a rurally dominated Legislature and, through re-districting, the "bed sheet ballot" situation which makes selection of legislators a guessing game.

These things which they have in common may lead to confusion between them. These is one important difference which every fair-minded citizen should keep in mind.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 calls for both the Senate and the House to be elected on a population basis. THIS IS NOT FAIR. Those in the metropolitan area who have protested vigorously against a rurally dominated Legislature should be the first to PROTEST this amendment which would swing the pendulum too far the other way.

If both houses of the Legislature were selected on the same population basis it would be equivalent to only a single house since the same representation would prevail at both levels. This would make it possible for only four heavily populated counties to control the whole state.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 calls for a so-called Balanced Legislature, composed of a House elected on a population basis and a Senate on a geographical basis. This is the principle of our national Congress, achieved by compromise after a violent struggle between large and small states but proved by time since our Constitution became effective, in 1789.

The heavily populated counties would control the state House of Representatives composed of 110 legislators. But the smaller upstate counties would continue to be protected by area representation in a Senate of 34 members.

This is true representative government, based upon protection of the rights of both the majority and the minority. It recognizes that what is truly good for Michigan is good for all the state, not just good for the small but heavily populated southeast corner.

When November 4 comes around the FAIR VOTE WILL BE FOR AMENDMENT NO. 3, THE BALANCED LEGISLATURE.

tests for brucellosis.

Herds demonstrating any reaction to the milk test must then be blood tested to determine the presence of any infected animals. Following the blood test and location of these reactor animals the program proceeds, as has been employed in the past, with identification of the infected animals and their removal from the herd.

In view of the fact that the ABR test is presumptive in nature, cattle or herds are not quarantined on the results of this test alone, and its results do not constitute an official test for the movement of sale of cattle.

Through its employment on a county-wide basis rapid coverage of an area can be achieved. Newly infected herds are located more quickly thus giving less opportunity for the disease to spread following its occurrence on a farm or in an area. It is planned to repeat the survey of the county with the milk test at suitable intervals, so that cows or herds not in production on the previous survey can be covered on succeeding visits to the county.

WE'LL be the first to admit that you can buy a car for less than the price of a Buick.

But not so much less as most people think.

And just to save those few extra dollars, you'll miss a fortune in fun.

For the few extra dollars you pay for a Buick, you get the ginger and thrill of a lot more power than you'll get in any other car of its price and pounds—plus the big miles-per-gallon figures of Buick's famed high-compression Fireball 8 Engine.

You get size and room and looks to do you proud—comfort you'll hardly believe—and that good sense of security that only ample weight can impart.

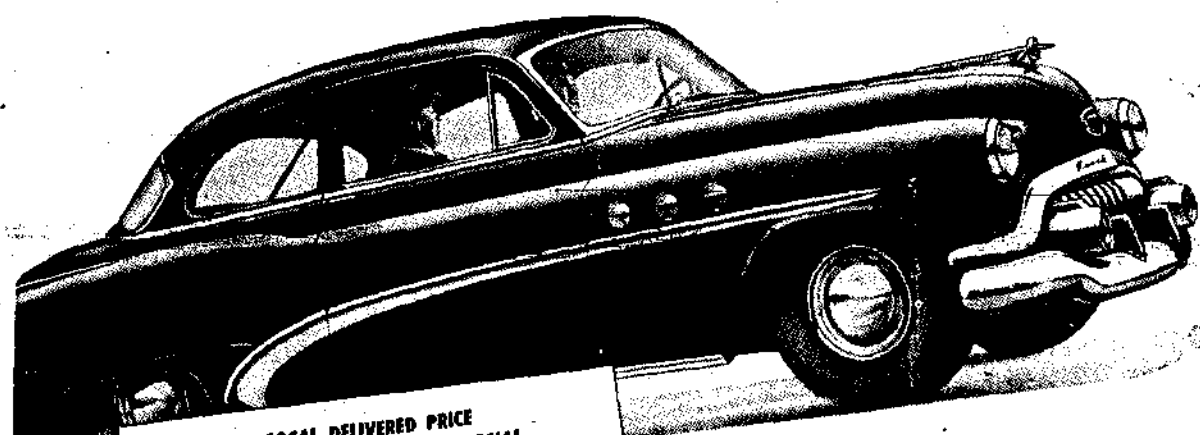

You get the all-coil-spring ride that a million dollars couldn't duplicate. You get handling, steering, braking, turning—all with an ease that women especially appreciate.

We could go on at length about a lot of other things, including a fair-sized list of items you get in every Buick but which cost extra on lesser cars.

But why go on? The fun and fine feeling and wondrous comfort you enjoy in a Buick are things you shouldn't be missing for just a few extra dollars. And the value—you just can't pass that up.

An old Ozark preacher once attributed the amazing success of his sermons to the manner in which he delivered them. "Fust Ah tells the congregation what Ah is gonna tell 'em. Then Ah tells 'em what Ah tol' 'em."

On that basis, that it takes more than one telling to clarify a situation as confusing as the one facing Michigan voters on constitutional amendment proposals, leaders throughout the state are "telling" the voters what they told "em".

Business and professional organizations and farm groups throughout out-state Michigan are repeating this theme in the closing weeks of the campaign:

"Proposal No. 2 would place control of both houses of the Legislature in the hands of 26% of the voters."

That's a broad and alarming statement.

To people outside the Wayne-Macomb-Oakland area that prospect becomes more alarming when they are reminded again and again that 26% of Michigan's voters represents a bloc which is apparently well under control of CIO labor bosses.

It hasn't been until recently that such domination of both the Senate and the House was possible.

In 1900, for instance, it took 24 counties to account for 51% of the state population. These represented both industrial and agricultural sections from Detroit factories to Thumb farms to Ionia shops.

The House of Representatives, elected on a population basis, could therefore never become lodged in reflecting the welfare of a small segment of Michigan. The Senate, based on area, made representation even more thoroughly reflective of the whole state.

Under two state constitutions — those adopted in 1835 and in 1850 — the plan worked satisfactorily. Under the present, 1908, constitution there have been rumblings of dissatisfaction. Because, by constitutional provision, senatorial districts have to be redrawn in every year ending in 3, labor bosses see the November election as an excellent way to prepare for reapportionment next year, '53.

They noted that Wayne, Macomb, Oakland and Genesee counties now have 51.6% of the state's 6,371 million population. They are also well aware that tightly controlled unions can swing those four counties.

Thus, by scrapping the Federal ideal of representation in the lower house by population and in the upper house by area the labor bosses would obtain the same hail-brother reception in the Legislature they now enjoy from the Governor's office.

If the CIO Plan 2 were in effect, there would be no reason for two houses in the Legislature, say outside opponents. The reason we have two houses in Washington and in most states is to give equitable representation to areas whose interests are vital to the general welfare but whose population would make them impotent minorities on a per-population basis alone.

Farmers, especially, are gravely concerned and, through the Michigan and local Farm Bureaus, are fighting to defeat the CIO plan.

In 1900, 60.7% of the state's inhabitants lived in rural areas. Today, 64.3% live in urban areas, incorporated places of 2,500 or more.

Part of the shift was the emergence of industry as the biggest economic factor in the state. Part was due to mechanization of farm work so that fewer and fewer farmers could feed more and more city cousins.

There are four methods of determining representation. Population only, which is used by five states; Voting participation, with representation determined by turnouts at the polls, which is not used by any state; Functional representation, with occupational or economic interest groupings determining Legislature makeup, which is used only by Arizona;

Northern Great Lakes Area Council
Endorses Mackinac Straits Bridge

Visioning an annual tourist traffic of over 2,123,000 vehicles crossing the Straits of Mackinac by 1958, the Northern Great Lakes Area Council has officially endorsed the construction of a proposed bridge that would connect Michigan's upper and lower peninsulas. The tourist promotion council is composed of tourist and travel officials representing Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and the Province of Ontario.

A detailed report to the organization at its recent semi-annual meeting in Brainerd, Minnesota, disclosed it has been determined that construction of the bridge is feasible and sound. According to Laurence A. Rubin, Secretary of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, and geographical only, a plan used nowhere in the United States.

Thirty-three of the 47 states which have two houses use a combination, a different base for each house. This is the present Michigan set-up which is threatened by the CIO attack.

Amendment No. 3 maintains the current system, has the House chosen by population and the Senate by areas. The only difference between Plan No. 3 and the present plan is minor: it would raise the House from 100 to 107 Representatives and provide 34 instead of 32 Senators.

So, the outstate battle-cry is "No on No. 2; Yes on No. 3." Privately, some leaders would be very content if both questions were defeated. "It's better, to carry the slight handicap of the present system than to have the whole state under the thumb of Walter R.uther," they philosophize.

With two strong groups fighting over two questions on the ballot, it's good for the peace of mind of the average voter to know that everyone agrees on Question No. 1. Without any recorded dissent, all parties are agreed that passage of No. 1 will strengthen the law in its fight against narcotic mobsters. It revises rules of evidence so that the sum that pushes dope to teenagers will find fewer loopholes to escape their just desserts.

Michigan had its first snowfall last week.

There wasn't enough to whiten the landscape but there was enough to start state officials speeding up their cold-weather planning. Highways, police, conservation and parks are affected by weather.

Plans were started before last Winter's snow had melted. Now comes last-minute detailing. Execution depends on when the weatherman really cuts loose.

Shades of Paul Revere! A Michigan city has a chain-telephone-call system that alerts merchants against bad-check assessors. In the first 90 days of operation the alarmers went into action four times . . . and since then not a bad check has been passed.

While the community is proud of that record, it isn't taken any public bows. It isn't giving advance warnings to any slick crook by revealing its identity.

SCIENCE OF SHOTGUNNING

Lots of books have been writ-ten on shotguns and their effec-tiveness against upland birds and game. Before you bought your gun you probably pondered the matter at great length—wondered if you were choosing the right gauge, the best stock, the right length barrel, the most effective choke for the type of hunting you planned to do.

Chances are your choice worked out pretty well, because most hunters can become good shots with any gun, providing they use it often enough to get thoroughly used to it.

In my book the choice of shot is a more important factor, plus the knowledge that tells you when to pull that trigger. Too many hunters buy shells loaded with No. 4 pellets when they should be using No. 6 or even 7 1/2's. Your shells with No. 4 shot have 135 pellets to the ounce while a No. 7 1/2 load carries 350 pellets for the same weight. You may argue that the killing power of heavier shot is greater, but you can't deny that in numbers there is strength, too. And if you're inclined to reach out for your birds or game beyond the 40 yard mark, your pattern begins to break up, and you desperately need those extra pellets to fill the holes.

Choice of Choke

Closely related to your choice of loads is the choke of your gun. Most duck hunters use a full choke, with which they know they can reach out as much as 80 yards and still have about 50% of their shot inside a 30-inch circle. Wide open or "improved cylinder" chokes give you the same number of shot in a 30-inch circle at only 30 yards. Beyond this range an open choke just wastes ammunition most of the time. So it all depends on the game you're after, and how close you're going to get to it. My choice for all bird hunt-ing, except ducks, is an improved cylinder. I firmly believe that too many hunters miss their game because a full or modified choke has kept the target completely out of the cone of fire!

The Matter of Lead

Of course, failure to lead may cause the same amount of misses. It takes an average .065 seconds from the time you see your game, raise your gun and pull the trigger until the shotgun pellets reach a point 20 yards from you. In that time a canvasback will fly as much as 65 feet! How much should you lead? That depends on your distance from the target—and the best answer is found from experience. Plan to spend more hunting hours in the field. Miss a few and hit a lot more! The only difference between you and a crack shot is a little more time at the sport. Take it this year—in Michigan Outdoors! It's later than you think!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Wonder How Miss Gilbert Is in "History"?

By now I guess you've heard about the spelling errors in the kids' report cards this week.

A typical card looked like this:

Arithmetic.....B
Geography.....C
Spelling.....B
Grammar.....B

I don't know if Miss Gilbert, the principal, actually wrote those cards, but she took full responsibility. This morning I hear she got up in the Assembly Hall—before all the students—and started writing GRAMMAR with two "a's" on the blackboard 100 times!

From where I sit, I'll bet this makes her even more popular with the students. It's nice to see an expert admit she occasionally makes a mistake. Too many so-called "experts" claim they're never wrong on such subjects as what you or I ought to eat... what we should wear... whether we should enjoy beer or butter-milk. A really wise person never claims to "know all the answers" all the time.

Lower Costs,
Not More Tax

Fred Alger insists that lower costs of government — not higher taxes — are the answer to Michigan's present financial crisis.

"The State of Michigan, like you and me, can go broke too. And the State will go broke if it keeps on spending more than it takes in," Alger insists.

-so are we!

RECENT PRISON RIOTS cost you and your fellow Michigan citizens about $2,000,000! The supervisor of Michigan State Prisons—appointed by the Governor—and the Governor himself, failed to act in time to prevent these costly riots. Later, a "truce" was made with the surly prisoners and YOU bought them steak, ice cream and other favors for their promise to be "good boys" in the future!

WHO CONTROLS OUR GOVERNOR? Find out who ordered him to open the prison gates for a goon-squad leader convicted of destroying property. Find out who ordered him to veto the "Good Roads Program" to take Michigan out of the mud. Find out who ordered him to veto the loyalty board charter amendment to Detroit's city charter and told him not to let the legislature consider anti-communist laws in a special session.

THESE SPECIAL GROUPS can get favors and privileges from the Governor's office because they "control" the Governor. He owes allegiance to them because they are the back-bone of his support. They are not interested in what is good for the State of Michigan but only in what will further their own ambitions and lust for power. These groups are controlled by a few men who dictate policy and act as political advisors to the Governor. They are responsible to nobody but themselves. This secret political bossism in Michigan must end!

SURE, YOU'RE BURNED UP! Well, do something about it, this time! Get Michigan State Government back in working, do something order! Show them you mean it, by voting straight Republican . . . on November 4th!

"Four years ago, the State had a surplus of 24 million dollars. But, during the next four years under a Democrat Governor, the 24 million has been spent and a deficit of 65 million dollars has been loaded on the over-burdened backs of Michigan's taxpayers," Fred Alger points out.

"In other words, they have spent 89 million dollars more than Michigan collected in taxes."
